

CONSPIRACY

LEWELLING SAYS IT'S LYING AND PREJUDICE

LANDIS AND TITUS

AND JUDGE M'KAY WANT HIM OFF THE RAILROAD BOARD.

L. P. CAMPBELL IS CONCERNED

COMBINATION HAS ANOTHER END SOMEWHERE.

Landis is Prejudiced and Titus is a Stupidous Lie—Ex-Governor Says His Populist Friends Have Found More's Nest.

Ex-Governor Lewelling returned from Topeka on Saturday, and on being asked by an Eagle reporter what he had to say in reference to the charges made against him by Warden Landis and Titus of Harper county, replied: "I have this to say. I am thoroughly convinced that I am the victim of a conspiracy, the ultimate aim of which is my removal from the railroad board. The manner in which Landis dragged my name into the Topeka investigation was wholly unnecessary and entirely unwarranted, in fact. While I was in the senate a business man of eastern Kansas laid before me a proposition for the purchase by the state of additional coal lands. He recited that the state is yearly paying a royalty to private owners of coal lands which amounts to as much as the interest on the purchase price of such lands. He informed me that he had an option on a tract of land near the prison and which he would sell to the state and that if the state should pay the same price per acre which had usually been paid for similar lands there would be a margin of $2,500 in it.

"I told him I knew nothing of the needs of the penitentiary but that I would mention the matter to the warden and ascertain whether there was need for additional lands. I did meet Mr. Landis and related to him what he had said to me. I did not intimate or suggest that he or I should profit by any transaction, but merely related what had been said to me. I did not ask him to join in any scheme to purchase the land, nor did I urge or suggest that it should be purchased at all. The whole circumstance was common place. Mr. Landis remarked that he would make inquiry as to whether more land was needed and if so would advise me. From that time we were both much occupied, with our respective duties and the matter was not referred to. I have learned that the institution not only owns all the land needed, but that the state's land has heretofore been neglected while the prison management has paid royalty to private owners. I do not think the warden inspired Mr. Landis thus to endeavor to extort from upon me. I met him in the morning of the day he testified before the committee and he seemed out of humor and blamed me because the salaries of prison officials had been reduced by the legislature.

"He may also have taken offense at my reference to Titus in the senate last winter. Titus is from Landis' old district and after he had successfully alluded to the empty buildings of Topeka on two or three occasions his friends were mightily wrought up because I alluded to him as the 'gentleman from the short grass regions of the west.' I received a most abusive letter from one of his constituents because of this remark, and it was Harper county which petitioned for my removal from the railroad board.

"No, I don't know whether Landis signed the petition for my removal or not. I believe Judge McKay carried it to the governor, and by the way, the judge was a very warm supporter of L. P. Campbell for the same position.

"It has been suggested that Mr. Campbell really inspired the movement against me, anyway his friends down there say so, but I don't know that this was the case."

"Are you aware that Titus has made an additional charge against you?"

"Yes, I am by the papers he says I wanted him to report a substitute for the text book bill, and in reply to this I will say that as for Titus, he is a dense and stupid and ambitious puppet. He is the tool of other men and don't know it, but he is ambitious and is trying to win fame by parading his own virtues in comparison with those of the men he stands. After all he is an adept at stuporous lying."

"I did not know Titus until I met him in the senate, and have very little acquaintance with him now. It is preposterous that I should go to a stranger, much less a representative from the camp of political enemies and seek his co-operation in any scheme of questionable legislation."

"The only sentence of truth in his

"There are fads in medicine as well as in other things," said a busy druggist, "but the most remarkable thing about Hood's Sarsaparilla is that customers who try other remedies all come back to Hood's, and this is why the enormous sales of this great medicine keep up and continue the To whole year round, steady."

"Why is it?" "O, simply because Hood's Sarsaparilla has more real curative merit than any medicine I ever sold."

This is of daily occurrence in almost every drug store. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured more sickness, and made more happiness through restoration to health than any other medicine.

ADMITTED TO BAIL

AND JOHN V. CUNNINGHAM HAS RETURNED TO TEXAS.

His Trial Set for the May Term of the District Court—Bond Fixed at Ten Thousand Dollars—Major Hood of Emporia and Messrs. Naffziger and Moore of This City Sign the Bond—When Cunningham Left the Jail He Was Given Quite a Farewell—He and Friends Thank Wichita People.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon John V. Cunningham walked out of the Sedgewick county jail, after bidding goodbye to everybody in it and thanking the sheriff and jail officers for their kindness.

At 7 o'clock with his friends and relatives he took the Rock Island train for his home in Taylor county, Texas.

Before leaving they called at the Eagle office desiring to have the paper express to the people of Wichita for Mr. Cunningham, his highest appreciation of the kindness and impartiality manifested towards him by the community. They said they were now perfectly willing to trust their case to the people of Wichita and Sedgewick county.

When the lawyers got through with their arguments before Justice Jones the latter in a short speech said that he did not want to embarrass the state he would hold the defendant on a charge of murder in the first degree, but as the proof was not evident or the presumption great, he would admit him to bail in the sum of $10,000.

Justice Jones fixed 3 o'clock as the hour for approving the bond, but before that County Attorney Amidon, accompanied by Carl Allen of the circus and E. E. Fitzpatrick, the ex-sarvis inspector, entered Justice Jones' office and asked not to have the bond approved until he had examined it.

At 3 o'clock the bond was signed and approved and a note sent to the sheriff to have the prisoner released. The bondsmen are Major Calvin Hood of Emporia and L. S. Naffziger and John M. Moore of the Fourth National bank of this city. Major Hood would go all the bond, but according to law one or more bondsmen must be a resident of the county where the offense was committed.

The arguments were very good on both sides, but the feeling of the audience was that the state's attorneys were entirely too harsh in their criticisms of the defendant and the witnesses. They went so far as to criticize Al. Christman terribly on account of the fact that he testified that he saw the defendant in the hands of McMahon before he fell to the floor. One of the attorneys for the state openly accused Al. Christman of lying. This was considered a very harsh statement, considering the standing of Mr. Christman as a citizen and a business man. The attorneys for the state, however, are trying this case, and they know, in all probability, from experience and otherwise, the best method of advancing the cause of justice. The attorneys for the defense made more conservative speeches. Both Judge Wall and A. E. Helm made strong and able arguments. Excepting what was considered unnecessary abuse the attorneys for the state also made strong arguments.

AN EASTER OFFERING
Suggestive of Life and Love and Unfading Beauty.

A most beautiful Easter offering came to the table of the editor yesterday morning, an offering suggestive in its delightful colors and sweet perfume of arized life and unfading beauty. A box of Easter lilies, dewy in their white purity, of many mock sweet pansies, saucy daisies, modest pinkies, smiling roses and that, not all too dainty to more than admire with the eyes, and all grown by the Wichita florist, Charles P. Mueller. His green house and conservatory are now a marvel of beauty and of fragrance. No one need send anywhere for the choicest of floral decorations and Easter emblems. No box of buds and bloom, of mystic tenderness ever composed an offering of brighter smiles and Easter incense than this found upon our table.

HOWARD CAPPER DEAD
Former Wichita Boy Dead at Goshen Bridge, Ia.

It will be sad news for the great number of Howard E. Capper's friends to learn that that young man died at his home at Goshen Bridge, Virginia, on last Saturday, of a complication of diseases. Mr. Capper was well known here as a rising lawyer. He was a graduate of the Kansas university and had by his own efforts obtained an excellent education. He was a noble young man in every sense of the word, and had his life been spared, would have risen to eminence in his chosen profession. The young man had been ill for over six months and left for his old home in Virginia in January, hoping by careful nursing of loving hands to be able to regain his health. He was formerly with Harry L. Gordon and later with Amidon & Conly in this city and was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

CHARGES ARE FALSE
Ex-Senator Lingenfelter Thinks There is Prejudice Against Lewelling.

Ex-Senator W. H. Lingenfelter of Wellington was in Wichita yesterday on his way to Hutchinson to look after the conduct of the reformatory. He is surprised at the turn things are taking in Topeka regarding the bribery investigation and says that he thinks there must be some mistake about the matter, especially the charges made against Lewelling. Asked if Representative Brown of Arkansas City had really withdrawn from the Populist party he said he hardly thought there was anything in it. "Things are considerably mixed," he said. "We'll have to wait for a clear day."

AT Cash Henderson's

Summer sunshine in Wichita never glistened upon a finer or more varied stock of cool Fabrics for hot days than those that are now piled up in our store.

We have bought largely at cash prices that we may undersell competition, consequently we offer well known goods at prices that prudent people will appreciate.

Here are some French Organdies. No use trying to compliment the weavers or pattern makers—common words in cold type can never do justice. Such sweet, fantastic, designs, tints and colorings as enter into these patterns show the work of master hands. Begin at 9c a yard, stop where you will, up to the most marvellously woven and designed productions. Also printed Grenadines, more beautiful than ever. Twenty-five cents this year buys better than sold last year at 40c.

Plaid Silk and Linen Batiste for shirt waists, latest ideas among fashionable dressers. What woman could not look handsome in such a waist?

Dotted Linen Chiffon Silk embroidered. White Organdies, beautiful silken sheer goods, especially selected for commencement dresses, but will be largely worn for other purposes.

Linen Suitings, Linen Skirtings and Jacket Patterns, handsome as the finest wools and cool as Colorado breezes.

Summer Lawns at 5c a yard. A counter full of Challies. Of course you'll want some.

Arrived late Saturday night: Another lot of Silk Skirts and Capes. Will be priced early Monday morning at economical figures.

Carpets and matting. If we're proud of one department more than another, it's this one. You may look here for hours. The designs and patterns are like a kaleidoscope in variety with prices to please every purse.
